

INSTITUT
SIMONE DE BEAUVIOIR
INSTITUTE
USEFUL INFORMATION

September 11, 1992

NOTE: Most items in this Bulletin are from the mail we receive on a regular basis. We simply pass this information along to you for your interest.

EVENTS, CONFERENCES, JOBS, NEWS OF INTEREST

Memorial Service

Concordia University was closed September 10 for a memorial service in memory of Dr. Matthew Douglass, Dr. Michael Hogben, and Dr. Jaan Saber. The service was held outdoors in the quadrangle of the Loyola Campus. The Concordia University Memorial Endowment Fund has been established in these men's names. Funds should be directed to the University Advancement Office. Addresses should be included so that your gift can be acknowledged. The SdeB Institute has received and continues to receive messages of support, and comfort from friends around the country. These messages have been a great source of comfort to a traumatized University. The messages will be posted for the benefit of everyone who comes to the Institute.

EVENTS

SdeB Council Meeting

You are requested to attend the first SdeB council meeting on Wednesday, September 30 at 10:00. This first meeting is crucial to the organization of the Institute for the coming year. Please bring a mug for your coffee/tea as the Institute has implemented no styrofoam policy.

SdeB host Anees Jung

The SdeB Institute is pleased to present Shastri Indo-Canadian scholar Anees Jung on Tuesday, September 22 at noon in room 101 of the Institute. Ms. Jung, an outstanding Indian journalist and writer, will speak on "Night of the New Moon: Mothers and Daughter in Indian Islam."

MCRTW

We have received the McGill Centre for Research and Teaching on Women speaker series for Fall 1992. On September 24, Sigrid Brauner, Department of German at U.Mass will speak on "Cannibals, Witches and the New World, circa 1500." On October 19th, Abigail Van Slyck, College of Architecture, U. of Arizona, will speak on "Putting Women in their Place: A Feminist Analysis of American Library Architecture, 1890-1920." All lectures take place on Thursday, from 15:30-17:30 in the Birks Bldg, room 100, 3520 University.

Art Show at Library

Concordia's Fine Arts Students have organized an Art Show to celebrate the opening of the new library complex. You are welcome to visit the exhibit, located on the 10th floor of the library, from September 8-27 from 10:00-18:00.

Thursdays at Lonergan Series

Dr. Bruce Mabley leads the Lonergan College Fall Speaker Series which begins September 17. Dr. Mabley will speak on "The Canadian Foreign Service: A Conservative Legacy." You are reminded that the Lonergan Speaker Series is held from 15:00-16:30 p.m. at 7302 Sherbrooke St. W. Call 848-2280 for information. A complete fall schedule is posted on the "academic" board.

Campus Ministry Workshops

Campus Ministry is offering a 10-session workshop on the Holistic Approach to Stress Management, directed by Michelina Bertone, on Mondays, from Sept. 21 to Nov. 30 from 19:30 - 21:00. Michelina will also offer An Experimental Workshop on the Many Faces of the "Holy" and "You"... every Wednesday, from October 7-Nov. 18 from 12:00 to 13:30. There is a $10 donation to register. Call 848-3591 or 481-7875 for further information.

Call for Papers

The Royal Commission on Aboriginal Peoples Life Histories Project wishes to commission a number of life history projects and invites proposals from scholars, researchers and writers. The project involves an indepth 3-generation study of an aboriginal family. The deadline for applications is October 1, 1992. Please refer to the "academic" board for information about this project. Submissions should be directed to Dara Culhane, Deputy Director, Social and Cultural Research, Royal Commission on Aboriginal Peoples, P.O. Box 1992, Station "B", Ottawa, ON, K1P 1B2.

The Popular Culture Association invites papers on Canadian Women, in a popular context, for the association's national meeting in New Orleans, April 7-10, 1993. "Popular Culture" can include history, fictional representation and sociological analysis. Proposals for papers and panels should be submitted by September 15, 1992 to SdeB Fellow Dr. Rosemarie Schade, c/o Concordia's Department of History, VE-323.

We have received the second call for papers for the Women and Texts in Pre-Revolutionary France which will focus on questions relative to the subject of French women as producers of texts in pre-revolutionary France. Evelyne Berriot-Salvadore will give the keynote speech. Submissions should be sent, by September 15, to Hannah Fournier or Jean-Philippe Beaulieu at University of Waterloo, Dept. of French, Waterloo, ON N2L 3G1, telephone (519) 885-1211, ext. 2249 or 3554.

Health and Canadian Society invites manuscript submissions for a multi-disciplinary journal which will begin publication in January, 1993.

Two issues have been planned for 1993, with quarterly issues in subsequent years. The journal hopes to provide articles that examine health and illness within the interdisciplinary context of social, cultural, economic, historical and political conditions. Please refer to the "academic" board for news of this new publication, special inaugural rates and conditions for submissions.

Call for Videos

One-minute video submissions are sought for In-sight 92: A Festival of Women's Film & Video which will be shown at the Edmonton Women's Film and Video Festival November 10-22. The festival is co-ordinated by Cathy Bray, Athabasca University. Telephone (403) 448-0703.

Sabbatical Scholarships

The University of British Columbia offers Sabbatical Scholarships at the Centre for Research in Women's Studies and Gender Relations. Scholarship applications are due by October 16. Complete information can be found on the "jobs" board.

Conferences

Le Centre maghrébin de recherche et d'information, en collaboration avec la Corporation du 350 ième anniversaire de Montréal, vous invite à L'ouverture officielle de la semaine interculturelle maghrébine lundi le 21 septembre de 18:00 à 21:00 au Centre de la Péltrie, 5829, Côte des Neiges à Montréal. Le calendrier des activités pour la semaine interculturelle maghrébine est affiché sur le babillard "academic".

News of Interest

Information regarding the endorsement of Guatemalan Rigobertu Menchu as a candidate for the Nobel Peace prize for 1992 has been posted on the "social affairs, peace" board. Coalition Montréal is promoting Ms. Menchu's candidacy. Endorsement letters may be directed to Elizabeth Morey, Director, Special Projects, Rector's Office, Concordia University.

Supply and Services director Cyril Macdonald would like you to be aware that, effective July 1, 1992, GST charges are applied on parcel post shipments entering Canada that are over $20.00. Also, A handling charge of $5 is also applied. See the "academic" board.

Please note that information concerning Graduate Awards, book samples and NFB listings are continuously posted on the "academic" and "cultural affairs" boards.

See you at the Institute's Welcome Back Party on Friday, September 18 at 14:00!

Jobs

University of Calgary, Faculty of General Studies, tenure-track Assistant Professor level in Women's Studies, for July 1, 1993. Applications due Sept. 30, 1992.

UQAM, Département de géographie, deux postes de professeur/e régulier/e, en géographie de l'environnement, et en didactique de la géographie, le 1 décembre ou

1er juin 1993.

UQAM, Département des sciences de l'éducation, poste de professeur/e régulier/e en didactique des sciences humaines, 1er janvier 1993.